

an alabaster box of ointment, & standing behynde belyde the feet of our Lord, began to water his feet with her teares, and wyped them with the heares of her head. ℣. God elected & fore-chose
her. ℞. He maketh her dwell in his tabernacle.

The prayer.

VE beseech thee o Lord, let vs be assisted by the suffrages of blessed Marie Magdalene:
by whose prayers, thou beeing intreated, did'st raise Lazarus her brother from hel to lyf againe, after he had bin sowre dayes dead. Who livest & raignest.

The Añs on the feast of S Iames the Apostle,
the 25. of Iuly.

Be you strong. ℣. They did shew forth, as in the comon of the Apostles. The prayer.

BE thou o Lord a sanctifier & guardiā to thy people: that beeing defended by the custody of Iames the Apostle, it both by conuersation please thee, and serue thee with a mynde void of care. Through our Lord.

The Añs the same day, of S. Christopher mart.

This saint. ℣. With glorie & honor. The prayer.

G raunt wee beseech thee o almighty God, &c.
as in the comon of one martyr.

The Añs on the feast of the holy martirs Na-zarius, Celsus, Victor: & Innocent Pope & confessor, the 28. of Iuly.

They ioy in heauen. ℣. The saints shal reioyce,
&c. as in the comon of many martyrs.

The prayer.

THe blessed confession, o Lord, of thy saints Nazarius, Celsus, Victor, & Innocent defend vs, and woorthely obtaine by intreatie, assistance against our frailtie. Through our Lord.

The